

Abrasive wheel

Course Duration : 1/2 day

Course Content:

- The need to Train and Statutory Requirements
- Characteristics of an Abrasive Wheel and the Types of Abrasive Wheels
- Marking of Abrasive Wheel and the Types of Abrasive Wheels
- Speed
- Hazards and Precautions to be Taken
- Personal Protective Equipment (PPE)
- Storage and Handling of Abrasive Wheels
- Inspection and Methods of Testing for Damage
- Guarding
- Dressing and Truing
- Specific Mounting Procedures

Who should attend:

- This 1/2 day course is suitable for supervisors and operators of abrasive wheel machines.
- The course is designed to meet with the requirements of PUWER 98 and the Health and Safety Executive Publication HSG 17 "Safety in the Use of Abrasive Wheels"

Benefits of Attendance:

- All delegates will receive a certificate of attendance and a comprehensive set of course notes. You will also receive an individual Training record for each delegate to provide proof of training.

Enright Access Solutions Ltd

Telephone: 0151 922 3976 Fax: 0151 922 2199

IOSH Accredited Course

For more information visit www.enrightaccess.co.uk